

JOHN DAVID SCHRAGER - PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

I grew up in a family business. From an early age, I learned about the challenges of owning and operating business – how to provide a quality service, how to connect with potential customers, how to resolve disputes, and how to build relationships – with both internal and external customers. Having practiced law for 20 years, I help businesses succeed. Simply put, I find meaning in seeing my clients’ businesses thrive. I believe strongly in the benefits of getting ahead of the curve. By anticipating issues, I seek to walk with my clients. I believe in ethics, in being true to your values and in the benefits of developing good business practices. Some people like to drive their cars on the ice in March. I don’t. By being strategic, businesses can succeed – sometimes beyond their wildest expectations – and can do so without walking on thin ice.

- John David Schrage

Articles and Presentations

“Legal Compliance Training”, 2013 “Employment Law: Myths and Missteps”, 2012 “Opportunities & Risks Using Social Media Marketing,” Wagner, Falconer & Judd, Ltd. Business Symposium 2009. Be Careful: Collection Actions May Trigger Franchise on Distribution Laws That Your Client May Not Know About, Business Law News (State Bar of Wisconsin, Business Law Section, July 2009).

Association Memberships

- Minnesota State Bar Association (Committee Member, Computer and Technology Section)
- Wisconsin Bar Association
- Pennsylvania Bar Association

Admissions

- Wisconsin 1994
- Minnesota 2005
- Pennsylvania 2008
- U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Wisconsin, 1994
- U.S. District Court, Western District of Wisconsin, 1994
- U.S. District Court, Northern District of Illinois, 1999
- U.S. District Court, District of Minnesota, 2007

Education

- Stanford University (BA 1990 Economics, Political Science)
- University of Wisconsin – Madison (J.D. 1994)

Community Involvement

- Rotary Club of Minneapolis (Club Service Director 2013-2014)
- Volunteer, First Covenant Homeless Shelter